

KITCHEN SHOWER
COMES AS SURPRISE

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Johnson
Honorees of Party at Home
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Beene.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Johnson were the honorees of a surprise kitchen shower Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Beene on Battery Place.

Mr. Johnson is the secretary of the First Baptist church and came here a few months ago from Macon, Ga., with his bride. They have recently taken an apartment on Fort Wood and gone to housekeeping.

In the evening several young people of the church called at their apartment and asked them to walk around to Mr. and Mrs. Beene's with them. Always ready and willing to oblige, the unsuspecting young couple readily agreed to go with them.

Upon their arrival at the home they were cordially received by the hostess, Miss Ruby Carter, who was in the room, volunteered to play, and as she struck the chords of a very beautiful march the guests who had been up stairs came filing into the room and Mrs. Johnson's chair and left their gift of some kitchen utensils.

A unique contest game was devised by Miss Annie Boyd and created much good humor. This was the jumbling together of fifteen names of kitchen utensils which looked very foreign, indeed, and the prizes were to be given in fifteen minutes. The prizes for this were kitchen utensils and were won by Miss Jessie Wright and Walter Her, who in turn presented them to the honorees.

Miss Louise Russell directed the hemming of tea towels by the guests. The young men chose their partners to assist and each was to hem one end of the towel in a half hour. Miss Ella Hunt and Mr. Johnson were the winners in this, and for their superior dexterity in hemming tea towels were given some doughnuts.

Miss Alice Hunt assisted Mrs. Beene in serving "Hoover refreshments" of tea and doughnuts.

The hall, living room and dining room were decorated with jonquils. Among those present were: Misses Annie Boyd, Louise Russell, Emma Pickle, Beanie Pickle, Jessie Wright, Ella Hunt, Allie Hunt, Minnie Helm, Lola Stephens, Thelma Robinson, Adelle Mae Barnes, Hazel Brummett, Irene Mills, Mary Pearle, Mildred Stevenson, Nona Bramblett, Ruby Carter; Messrs. Wayne Robinson, Fred Morwood, Troy Woodside, Walter Her, Joe Wood, Leslie Hicks; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Skilton, Mrs. J. C. Snow, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Beene.

BAGASOLL FOLLOWS
BEACH BATHERS

(By Betty Brown.)
Half the fun of a swim is in sitting on the beach—any Palm Beacher can tell you that! The desirable thing, therefore, is to have a most fetching bathing costume and cap. This fair bather is striped like a napkin in black and white and has brought her bagasoll, that parasol knitting bag that is useful and ornamental.

Elaborate preparations are being made and everything will be done by the association to show the appreciation of the individual members for the departing president.

Committees from each school have been appointed to assist. Members of the leagues are directed to take the East Lake car, getting off at Kelly street, one block from the school.

YOUNG BUSINESS WOMEN'S CIRCLE MEETS TONIGHT

The Young Business Women's circle, No. 15, of the First Baptist church, will meet in the ladies' parlor of the church this evening at 7:30. Miss Ethel Taylor will be the leader. All young business women of the church are cordially invited.

Owing to illness in the home of Mrs. Nevins Sloan, the music circle will meet with Miss Susie Glover at 458 Vine street Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

RIDGEDALE RED CROSS WILL MEET THURSDAY

The Ridgedale Red Cross auxiliary will meet Thursday afternoon at the K. of P. hall on South Dods avenue. Mrs. H. C. Warwick, president, requests all members to attend as business of importance will be transacted.

The regular meeting of the East Lake Red Cross auxiliary will be held Tuesday afternoon at the school building.

The auxiliary will entertain with the annual Easter party for the children of the home Saturday afternoon. A special feature will be an egg hunt. All members are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. Clay, 415 High street, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

MRS. COLGROVE PRESENTS
PUPILS IN RECITAL

Music Club Interested Audience at Regular Meeting in Courthouse Auditorium.

Mrs. Elizabeth Colgrove, vocal teacher and chorister of the high school, presented a number of her pupils in recital before the Chattanooga Music Club Monday night in the courthouse auditorium. Mrs. Colgrove prefaced the evening's program with a talk on the work of the pupils in the schools and the encouragement extended by the schools and their superintendent for serious musical study. She was the accompanist at the piano of all the program numbers, which presented a good variety. One verse of the Marseillaise, sung in French by the French pupils, made a fitting and attractive opening number. It was sung by eight girls, gowned in white, the audience respectfully rising during its rendition.

A pretty vocal duet, "By the Pool," was sung by Misses Margaret Brooks and Vivian Beasly.

Forty voices were blended in an arrangement by Palmer of the Strauss "Blue Danube Waltz," the selection being one of the most appealing on the program. Carol Kries and Bernard Fine, violin pupils of Prof. Cadde, were heard in two well-played selections, the first "In the Garden of Melody."

William Cherry took the solo part of the old-time slave hymn, "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," accompanied by Paul Sims, Fred Harris and William Thatcher. The song received an encore, but without response.

Two Marseillaise songs were sung by the Misses Mae Simmons and Annie Dozier Hunt with good expression.

William Cherry, who possesses a good bass voice, sang Rodney's "Change of the Guard," which he accompanied to a chorus of "Sweet Kitty Clover."

One of the most finished choral numbers was "The Willow," by Cowen, sung by the Girls' Glee club. Much applause followed the rendition.

In the absence of the orchestra, Miss Amy McDonald, a former member and vocal pupil of Mrs. Colgrove, sang two folk songs—Irish and Welsh. The solos were beautifully sung. The latter, "All Through the Night," being unusually well adapted to the sympathetic quality of the voice.

"Snow Flakes," by Cowen was a quartet selection, sung by Misses Annie Johnson, Mae Simmons, Laurie Ball and Annie D. Hunt. The program closed with the singing of "Star Spangled Banner," by everybody present.

MRS. BOYD ENTERTAINS
WITH A 6 O'CLOCK DINNER

Mrs. C. H. Boyd will entertain with a 6 o'clock dinner this evening at her home in Highland Park. The honorees will be Miss Cornelia Whitaker and Miss Ann Thomas, who leave Saturday for Washington, where they go to accept government positions. White lilacs will adorn the center of the table. Covers will be laid for twelve. The dinner will be served by Misses Ann Thomas, Ernestine Daniels, Mary Alice Jones, Gladys Boyd, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Boyd.

MISSION RIDGE TO HAVE RED CROSS AUXILIARY

Plans are under way for a branch Red Cross auxiliary to be established at the Mission Ridge school, under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' association. During the past summer a temporary auxiliary was formed, which proved to be one of the best in this section.

A large number of garments were completed during the three months.

NEXT EVENTS OF MUSIC
CLUB HOLD MUCH INTEREST

Miss Eloise Baylor, soprano; Roy Lamont Smith, pianist, and Lester Cohn, violinist, will appear in recital at the courthouse auditorium April 22 under the auspices of the Chattanooga Music club.

The election of officers of the club will take place after the recital of April 8 at the courthouse when Howard L. Smith will direct a choral evening.

SOCIETY PERSONALS

Mrs. James Crowe, of Athens, who underwent a serious operation two weeks ago at Erlanger hospital has been removed to the home of her niece, Mrs. Sidney Smith, at 417 Walnut street.

Mrs. W. A. Bryson, of Asheville, who has been spending the winter in Florida, will come Wednesday to be the guest of Mrs. John Blevins on Bailey avenue.

Mrs. C. E. Osborne, who has been ill at West-Ellis hospital, has sufficiently recovered to be removed to her home on West Sixth street.

Mrs. M. B. Sparks, who has been ill at her home on Bluff View, is improving.

George N. Musgrave, of the 11th field artillery, Camp McClellan, Ala., formerly the Virginia field artillery, spent the week-end with friends here.

Miss Jean Riddle will return today from Gadsden, Ala., where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. T. Reich. Mrs. Reich will go to Nashville to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Mack have returned from Camp Pike, Ark., after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Brothers.

Mrs. Hackett, wife of Lieut. Hackett, of the medical corps, at Camp

Greenleaf, is with Mrs. Moore on Cherry street. Lieut. Hackett was formerly a prominent practicing physician in West Virginia.

Mrs. R. S. Thaxton and little daughter, Dorothy, of Bridgeport, Ala., are guests of Mrs. O. R. Andrews and Miss Harriet Andrews, on McClellan avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wann will return April 1 from Hot Springs, Ark.

Miss Edith Carter is reported as improving from her illness.

Mrs. J. P. Prince, of Sewanee, will come this week to visit her daughter, Mrs. James Young, and other relatives.

R. B. Steward, of New York, is with his parents, Col. and Mrs. D. M. Steward, on Battery Place.

Mrs. L. S. Sprinkle, of North Chattanooga, is improving after an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. L. S. Warren, of New York, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. F. Ruoff.

service and an emphasis of the speaker's part of the Kiwanis creed. "It pays to advertise" was another idea brought out by several of the speakers, especially President Darwin. He said this club was considered first through an advertisement. He saw a write-up of the Nashville club and then conceived the idea of forming a similar club in Chattanooga.

Previous to the speeches twelve members were called on, each reading a clause from the creed of Kiwanis. During the evening there was some excellent music by a string orchestra and the club's double quart augmented by Mrs. H. R. Hudson and Miss Amelia Milligan.

The function was closed with a club oratorical contest in which two-minute speeches were made by Charles Morrison, Dr. C. E. Byington, Cal Sterchi and John A. Lovell.

President Hixson acted as judge and he awarded the honors to John Lovell, because this speaker in his remarks classed the judge among the greatest men of the many great men he had known.

LECTURE TO WOMEN ONLY AT CENTENARY

Every Woman in City Invited to Attend and Be Interested and Instructed.

Rev. Luther B. Bridges will deliver his lecture, "A Handsome Woman," to women only at Centenary church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. This service is rather unique and will follow a similar lines as the service held last week for old folks and all women are invited to come. There will be special music and E. L. Wolsinger says that this is one of the most interesting lectures he has heard. It is further announced that the only men to be present will be the speaker and Mr. Wolsinger, who will lead the singing and sing duets with Dr. Bridges.

Dr. Bridges preached last night to another large congregation on "Roll the Stone Away and Let Jesus in Your Heart." The sermon was a deep impression and stirred the large congregation and a number went forward for prayers in response to the invitation.

These revival services will continue throughout the week with preaching every day at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. and a cordial invitation is extended to all. The services which have been going on for the past two weeks have been very helpful and many conversions have resulted. The closing Sunday service will be featured with an Easter day musical program and it is the purpose of the preacher to make this the best of the entire series.

NEW ADJUTANT FOR CAMP WARDEN M'LEAN

Present May Be Last Officers' Reserve Training Camp in Chickamauga.

A change of assignments has been made in the R. O. T. C. between Capt. Basil D. Edwards, now camp adjutant, and Capt. Gilbert S. Brownell, now in command of Company 4. These officers will exchange places.

The Second battalion, R. O. T. C., will be out tonight working on an outpost problem. The First battalion is at present at Catoosa Springs engaged on battle problems.

A belief amounting to conviction is felt in R. O. T. C. circles that this is the last reserve officers' training camp to be held at Fort Oglethorpe. A fourth series of these camps is an assured fact, but this particular organization will be discontinued.

The discontinuation will probably be on account of the continued expansion of the medical officers' training camp.

Already a Camp Greenleaf annex adjoins Camp Warden McLean on the south and extends some half mile in series for sanitary camps. Beyond the barracks begin sanitary company tents. In fact, Greenleaf annexes are springing up all over the park and it is not improbable that the old rumor which predicts all Chickamauga given over to an immense medical and sanitary training school may be verified.

L. M. WEBB FEASTED BY

RELEASE CAPTIVE SHIP

Germans Heed Protests of Swedish Government.

Stockholm, Monday, March 25.—It is reported that the Germans have released the Swedish steamer Princess Ingeborg.

The Princess Ingeborg while bound for a Swedish port after having unloaded a Belgian relief cargo, was captured by a German submarine off the Skaw on March 16 and taken to a German port. The Swedish government protested against the capture to the German government on March 21.

Don't Let Soap
Spoil Your Hair

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Then came greetings from various civic organizations and the newspapers. The speakers were Bartow Strang, representing the Y. M. C. A.; George F. Milton, representing the Chattanooga News; Laps G. Walker, representing the Chattanooga Times; O. B. Andrews, representing the Rotary club; E. D. Reed, representing the Chattanooga Automobile club; and G. Nottingham, representing the third liberty loan campaign committee of the Chattanooga zone.

At the conclusion of Mr. Nottingham's remarks a motion was made and adopted enlisting every member of Kiwanis as sales agent for the third liberty bonds.

The speeches were all along the line

M'HELD OUSTED FROM CENTRAL LABOR UNION

Resolution Would Change Name to Trades and Labor Council—Will Parade April 6.

The exclusion of Teddy McHold, business agent of the chauffeurs' union, from membership in the Central Labor union, passage on first and second reading of a resolution changing the name of the central organization to the Chattanooga Trades and Labor council, and the appointing of a committee to arrange for labor's part in the liberty day parade were principal among the matters acted upon at the meeting of the central body Monday night.

A warm session preceded the taking of the vote in regard to McHold's membership in the organization. Allowed a full chance to give an account of his labor record, the business agent of the chauffeurs' union occupied the floor of the hall for some time. A voluminous report was presented by the committee which investigated the McHold case, and the committee reported unfavorably by four to one. McHold was ousted by a vote of 51 to 9.

Although the Central Labor union, if the resolution changing the name of the organization passes third and final reading, will henceforth be known as the Chattanooga Trades and Labor council, it will remain unchanged in system and membership. The change in name was decided on in order to remove misconception as to certain other institutions using the words Central Labor.

Jack O'Donohue delivered an address, and it was decided to have the members of organizations represented in the central body take part in the liberty day parade on April 6. Labor's part in the parade will be arranged by a committee composed of John Tinker, Phil Shugart and W. L. Kiger. This committee will also inaugurate the campaign for the loan among the labor union.

Another item of business transacted Monday night was the appointment of committees to take charge of the Central Labor carnival which is to hold forth on Eleventh street next week. C. H. Zeigler is chairman of this committee and will have full charge of the affair.

Sweetheart, You Look Ten Years Younger!

Complexion Blemishes Banished—No Sign of Wrinkles—How She Did It

Only a woman who has watched her complexion change from wrinkled, coarse, sallow ugliness to clear, soft, youthful beauty can realize the feeling of joy that came over me when first I saw that my own care-worn, aged-looking skin was actually regaining its girlish freshness. Yet prior to this there had been no preparation, no treatment at the highest prices, which I had not tried, only to make my face look worse. Finally a French lady gave me a beauty recipe which she had obtained from a doctor in Paris, who told her the reason most things failed was because they lacked the power to get many a wrinkled, hollow-cheeked, faded-down into the skin and renew the youthful activity of the tissues. It was only a short time after that my husband exclaiming, "Sweetheart, you look ten years younger!" That French beauty recipe is a marvel. I am certain that most any woman can successfully use the same plan, so I gladly repeat here for the benefit of others. Merely wash your face with buttermilk and rub in a teaspoonful of rose-water cream (which can be obtained from druggists); wipe the face and apply Poudre Faciale—a very fine complexion powder prepared especially for shiny noses and bad complexion. If your face is badly wrinkled, get a box of Japanese Ice Powder to use in connection with the rose-water cream. I have seen because they lacked the power to get many a wrinkled, hollow-cheeked, faded-down into the skin and renew the youthful activity of the tissues. It was only a short time after that my husband exclaiming, "Sweetheart, you look ten years younger!"

Pure rose-water cream—Creme Tokalon Roseated—is guaranteed by its manufacturers to banish complexion blemishes and make any woman look years younger and far more beautiful in ten days' time or the price paid will be refunded. When shown the above article, the following local merchants stated that despite the war, they could supply Creme Tokalon Roseated and the other French created products mentioned.
